Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS.

Long Stay travel insurance

Some important facts about your travel insurance are summarised below.

This summary does not describe all the terms and conditions of your policy so please take time to read the policy to make sure you understand the cover it provides.

The cover under Pre-Travel Policy A is valid from the date your cover starts after the policy was issued until the date of departure, when you leave home.

The cover under the Travel Policy B is valid from the date of departure, when you leave home, and ends when you return home or the expiry of the policy whichever is first.

These policies are arranged by Sennocke International Insurance Service Limited and underwritten by Union Reiseversicherung AG, United Kingdom and Ireland Branch.

	Significant restrictions and exclusions applying to all parts of the policy
Residency	This policy is only available to persons who have been resident in the United Kingdom for at least 6 months in the last 12
Excess	An excess is the amount you have to pay towards each claim. All excesses are payable by each insured-person , for each incident giving rise to a separate claim under each section of cover. Under the emergency medical section your excess will reduce to NIL if you save money by using a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or Medicare in Australia at a state hospital and/or with a state registered doctor.	If travelling to Australia it is a condition of your policy that you register for Medicare on arrival. There are Medicare offices in all major towns and cities. Registration is free and this will entitle you to use Medicare hospitals and Medicare registered doctors. This will greatly reduce your expenses and will reduce your excess to Nil.
Pregnancy	If it would have been over 28 weeks at start of trip or you were pregnant at the time you purchased the policies.
Consequential loss	Of any description unless specifically stated in the policy wording.
Pre-existing medical conditions	There is no cover for any claim connected to any pre-existing medical condition, any condition awaiting treatment or investigation, any terminal condition or any condition where medication has been changed.
